H T PAREKH FOUNDATION

HT Parekh joined hands with EdelGive since 2016 and today supports The Collaborators Education initiative in Maharashtra.

The H T Parekh Foundation was established in October 2012 with the aim to undertake, pursue and be concerned with the welfare, betterment and advancement of society as a whole, irrespective of religion, race, community, caste, gender, language or social status. The Foundation is sector agnostic and works across a range of social interventions and development initiatives across India. The Foundation's objective is to support and partner socially relevant projects and activities through NGOs and community based organisations operating across India. They work across sectors, geographical locations and size to facilitate deep and long term impact with partner organisations for a developed and inclusive society.
